Thank you to everyone who supported the sixth annual Funday Sunday with your prayers, donations of time and/or money or simply coming along or bringing family or friends. Without your continued support this event would not happen. It was another great day with fantastic weather and a crowd estimation of well over 1000. Funday is a blessing to our community but it's also such a blessing to see all ages serving together for the glory of our God and his kingdom. We would love to receive your feedback. The Funday team will be meeting on Wednesday. If you'd like to comment on this year's event, please pass on to your reps prior to Wednesday. See you there next year.
